

SAVE US FROM REACTION--COOLIDGE

Head of Coal Miners' Union Denies Conspiracy Charge

E. F. DITHMAR BREAKS WITH LA FOLLETTE

Says Madison Progressives Have Surrendered to Nonpartisan League

WILL STAY IN RACE

Says Thousands of Progressives
Will Challenge La
Follette's Move

In a statement issued at his home in Baraboo last night, Lieut. Gov.
E. F. Dithmar, candidate for governor, breaks with Senator La Follette and he denounces the "attempt to surrender both as to principles and leadership by the Madison group of progressive republicans to the Nonpartisan league."

Mr. Dithmar says that thousands of progressives "will challenge the move" of the senator's move in resigning for governor. The statement follows:

"Senator La Follette's endorsement of all of the Nonpartisan league candidates for state offices is as a great surprise to the progressives of Wisconsin. This endorsement must be looked upon as an attempted surrender both as to principles and leadership, by the Madison group of progressive republicans to the Nonpartisan league.
Thousands of serious minded progressives in Wisconsin will challenge the wisdom of this step and will actively oppose the surrender of the progressive cause to this new organization, headed by W.
La Follette, a Milwaukee socialist.
If successful in this endeavor, the organization as a political party in this state. I have been a supporter of Senator La Follette for many years but I cannot follow him in his statement that the cause of our state government should be placed in the hands of the Nonpartisan league.
I shall continue my political activities within the republican party, and if nominated and elected governor, I shall stand for progressive reform for the benefit of all the people of the state.

"As a progressive republican I announced my candidacy for the governor on June 10th. I did so in the belief that progressives would support me, including progressives of the present legislature, a large majority of the delegates from Wisconsin at the recent republican national convention, and petitioners signed by over 3,000 republicans urging my candidacy.

"For months I have repeatedly urged a state wide progressive conference for the purpose of deciding upon a progressive candidate for governor. The present Nonpartisan candidate for governor, and his friends refused to consider such a plan. About the middle of June at the Turner hall in Madison the Non-partisans held a state convention and nominated a full state ticket which the senator now endorses.

"The senator has an inherent right to express his opinion as to candidates for state offices and so to each individual voter. Indeed it is a privilege and a duty of every citizen to carefully ascertain the views and decide upon his own choice of candidates.

"I have fought for progressive principles for 25 years and my record as lieutenant Governor during the past six years should be a guaranty of my progressive faith. As state chairman of the progressive campaign for delegates to the recent national republican convention I gave liberally of my time and of my money in the conduct of the campaign and exerted by best efforts to insure the election of the La Follette delegates. I base my candidacy squarely on the progressive republican platform.

"State campaign headquarters, supporting my candidacy, have been located in the Pirelli building in Milwaukee and I shall begin my speaking campaign on August 2nd. As a tried progressive republican I offer my candidacy for governor to the voters of Wisconsin who believe that the interests of the state will be best served by my promotion from the office of lieutenant governor to the office of governor."

body arrived here from France, were

Grove, by the pastor, the Rev.
George A. Casey.

Says Dithmar Sought Support Of The League

Edward F. Dithmar tried to get the support of the Nonpartisan league and failed.

Following the announcement of Dithmar attacking Senator La Follette for his endorsement of John J.
Blaine for governor, the officials of the league on Tuesday authorized a statement which declares that the league is co-operating politically with every liberal and progressive move of the state and asks none of them "to surrender either their principles or leadership." Following is the official statement of the league:

"Mr. Dithmar, through The Wisconsin Democrat, assails Senator La Follette because he is supporting the progressive republican candidates who were endorsed by the Nonpartisan league state convention. Mr. Dithmar flirts for the endorsement of the league.

"On June 5 last he was quoted as having denounced the league. On June 12 Mr. Dithmar wrote the Wisconsin Leader, the official paper of the league, and referred to the charge he is alleged to have made against the league, in which he said:

"The charge is grossly unjust and unfair in the light of my real attitude."

"Mr. Dithmar, in attacking the league, attacks 30,000 of the most progressive farmers of Wisconsin, organized in the league, and he is attacking the platform which was adopted not only by the Nonpartisan league, but by every progressive and liberal organization in the state, including the Equity society, the Committee of 43, the Wisconsin Federation of Labor and the Railroad Brotherhoods. In denouncing the league and its program, Mr.
Dithmar assails all those organizations.

"The league is co-operating politically with every liberal and progressive organization in the state, and asks none of them to surrender either their principles or leadership."

HEILMAN WON'T REENTER RACE

Big Official Business Leaves
No Time for Private Practice

Roman Heilman today made a public statement that he would not be a candidate for re-nomination to the office of district attorney of Dane county at the September primaries. The statement follows:

"Although I have been urged by a great number of the voters of the county to seek re-nomination, I have decided not to be a candidate.

Dane county is the second largest county in the state in wealth and population, and I believe Dane county is next to Milwaukee county in the amount of criminal business that passes through its courts. In 1919, 464 state criminal cases were filed in the superior court of this county, of which about 125 were felonies. Fines and costs collected in 1919 exceeded the previous year by over 33 per cent. The first six months of the present year, I am satisfied, would show similar figures.
There is no present prospect of a diminution of crime; in fact, there is every indication of an increase.

The present facilities of the district attorney's office are inadequate. The district attorney should have an office in the court house. He should have an assistant who will be available if the district attorney is in court or otherwise engaged. The district attorney should receive an adequate salary so that he could effectively devote his entire time to the office.

"My time has been so fully taken up with my duties as district attorney that I have had but little time to devote to private practice which should now have my entire attention."

"I thank all my friends who have so loyally supported me in the past and also for their promises of ardent support in the present campaign were I to become a candidate."

ADDITION TO PARK.
PRAIRIE DU CHIEN—Several
lots, formerly owned by D. F. Hors-fall, have been purchased by the city and will be added to the city park, making it more than twice its present size. This property has been for years used as a lumber yard.

Coal Prices

STRIKE IS SPREADING

More Mines Close in Indiana;

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—Proof that the Illinois miners officials have entered into conspiracy with the operators to boost the price of coal, was demanded this morning by Pres.
Frank Farrington of the Illinois Miners' Union in a telegram to Pres. Richard Corbridge of the Miners' local at O'Fallon.

Continue Scrutiny
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.—Officials of the United Mine Workers of America today continued their close scrutiny of News dispatches regarding the strike which has closed all but a few of the bituminous mines in Illinois and which has spread into Indiana, closing approximately half the mines in this state.

Reports received from mining communities in Indiana, this morning indicated that mines were closed at Clinton, Bicknell, Terre Haute, Linton and Jasonville. The 22 mines in the Clinton field were reported to be completely closed with 4,500 miners idle.

Enter Negotiations
SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—Operators of at least twenty independent coal mines in Illinois have entered negotiations with their shift men to pay the $2 a day increase sought.
This was the only development this morning in the Illinois strike situation.

Indiana Situation
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.—Reports received from the mining districts shortly after noon today indicated that in some sections of the Indiana field day men were returning to work while in others additional mines were closed.

ture. Movies on milk production and other subjects will be given in agricultural hall at 2, followed by a visit to the dairy buildings.

monstration of the dairy herd at the western station at 4:30.

ing the southerners in this state.

board during the arbitration period more than a year ago. Glenn Turner, Milwaukee, will be one of the speakers at the meeting. All machinists interested in receiving their back pay are urged by the commit-

Sluggish Breeze May Delay Race

SANDY HOOK, N. J.—The fifth international yacht race postponed Saturday because of too much wind and declared off yesterday after the two cup sloops had floundered around four hours in a calm, today was ordered prepared at 11:30 o'clock at fifteen minute intervals, while the crews whistled for a wind.

At 11:45 the code flag, "A. R. P." was set, indicating a south-southwest course for the final race. This will give the yachts a fifteen-mile beat to windward down the Jersey coast from the Ambrose channel lightship to a point off Asbury Park, with a run home. Shamrock led Resolute across the starting line.
The official starting time was the same for both boats at 2:17:00, because both had failed to cross within the two-minute handicap limit.

Resolute at 4:20 began to slip out ahead of the Lipton craft and had taken the lead from the challenger, although it was a slight one.

At 4:30 with about six miles to go to the outer mark and nothing more than a three or four knot breeze blowing, it did not seem possible that the yachts could make the turn before 5:30 at the earliest and with a 15 mile run home behind the wind, it looked as though the race might be called because of inability to finish before the time limit expired at 8:17. At 4:35 the yachts were almost becalmed.

EMBALMERS TO LIFT STANDARD

Convention Here Discusses Means of Aiding Profession

"TOWN DEAD?"
"Come in and choose your casket!" The Park hotel has been turned into a morgue or undertaking parlor. Caskets of metal, wicker, polished wood and damask adorn the main lobby.

"Wassa matter, town dead?"
inquired a drummer breezing in and halted by the unusual spectacle.

"We are trying to build up the standards and dignity of the profession on the principle of welfare of the community at large as the medical profession has done," said E. Voth, Milwaukee, addressing the opening meeting of the Wisconsin Funeral Directors' and Embalmers' association convention here this morning.

Sixty-five members of the association attended the opening of the 39th annual conference, which will close on Thursday.

The opening session was devoted to business and general discussion, informality was the keynote. Following the call to order the appointment of committees and applications for membership were made.
Twenty-two names were submitted for membership. Prof. A. Worsham announced a course of lectures he will deliver during the convention.

These lectures on embalming, surgery and preserving, are accompanied by actual demonstrations. The first of these was given this afternoon at Turner hall following the afternoon session.

E. Voth of Milwaukee spoke on the Official insignia of the profession and convention, pointing out its function and service.

A memorial is being raised at this convention to the memory of Father Clark, an old pioneer, who worked to start the present profession. The convention headquarters are at the Park hotel. All sessions are held in the capital.

cognize Czar Obligations,
Report.

BERLIN — The suggestion that Germany had been tempted to join forces with soviet Russia in order to escape her obligations was repudiated by Dr. Walter Simons, the German foreign secretary, in his speech to the Reichstag today. He also took occasion to reassert the neutrality of Germany in the Russo-

Dr. Simons declared that in the event Germany supported Russia, German territory would become a "battleground between eastern Bolshevism and western imperialism."

ANNEXATION IS UP IN COUNCIL

South Madison Measure Comes Up Tonight in Meeting

The question of annexation of South Madison will be the chief if not only subject of discussion at the meeting of council next Friday evening.

It is anticipated that there will be some warm opposition to the proposition, which will come up for final vote on that evening. Aldermen Thomas Quinn and Jos. A. Rupp of the ninth ward, which will be most affected so far as the actual annexation is concerned, for South Madison borders this ward, are understood to be in favor of the plan.

While there undoubtedly will be opposition and that very strong, it is believed that the measure will be carried.

WHEAT MARKET CRASHES TODAY

CHICAGO—Sensational breaks in prices took place in the wheat market today and the finish of trading

VILLA WILL SURRENDER TO HUERTA

Bandit Chief Reported
Willing to Give
Self Up

CLAIM AMERICAN HELD

Carl Haegelin, Brewer, Held by Villa for Ransom,
Report

(By the Associated Press)
MEXICO CITY—Francisco Villa has telegraphed President de la Huerta offering to surrender unconditionally, according to a government bulletin. The government has replied instructing him to place himself at the disposition of Gen. Martinez, chief of operation, and to repair the railway line.

Report American Held
EAGLE PASS, Tex.—Arrival of Francisco Villa, bandit chieftain, at Sabinsas this morning was immediately followed by a sharp encounter with a government force of about 25 men, all of whom are believed killed, according to information reaching Eagle Pass. It is said Villa's force totals between 300 and 500.

A report tonight says Villa has taken Carl Haegelin, an American, president of the Sabinas brewery, and is holding him for ransom.

All railroads and other communications are said to be under Villa's control.

Accounts say if his terms for surrender are not accepted, the bandit leader has promised to renew warfare immediately.

A heavy file of messages is being exchanged between Huerta government at Mexico City and Villa, it is understood, but what the latter's terms for surrender are can not be learned.

Wizard Boston Man Made Fortune From a Six-Cent Idea

BOSTON—A temporary halt was placed upon the activities of Charles Ponzi, president of the Securities Exchange Co. of this city, who, although virtually without funds a year ago, has made millions for himself and for investors by an astoundingly simple scheme.

Mr. Ponzi's remarkable business is based upon the use of the international reply coupon authorized under the international postal agreement as the medium for taking advantage of the difference in rates of exchange.

I simply buy international coupons," explained Mr. Ponzi to the district attorney.

"The coupons cost about 1 cent in United States money in Spain and I could get 6 cents in stamps for it here."

"Since then I have bought the coupons by the millions in countries where the rate is satisfactory. I have made millions for myself and my investors, all of whom get their money back and 50 per cent interest in 45 days. Right now I have $3-000,000 in investors' money. I will gladly return it without interest tomorrow."

The district attorney will have an audit made of the company's books at Mr. Ponzi's request, and Mr.
Ponzi has indicated that he may give up the business anyway when the audit is completed.

"All my customers and investors have made small fortunes," he said
"and I don't want any more money for myself."

MANITOWOC—Assurance that manufacturing industries of Mani- towoc need have no fears of a coal shortage next winter was given by Peter Reiss, president of the C. GOVERNOR SPEAKS AT NOTIFICATION

UPHOLDS LEAGUE STAND

Asks for Return of Government and Property to the People

(By the Associated Press)
NORTHAMPTON, Mass.—Rescue from the reactions of war was described as the transcendent need of the nation in the address which Gov. Coolidge delivered here today in accepting formally the republican nomination for vice president.

"The chief task that lies before us," he said, "is to repossess the people of their government and their property."

Gov. Coolidge found another source of gravest public concern to be "the reactionary tendency to substitute private will for the public will."

He said there had been a disposition on the part of some individuals and of groups to inquire "whether they liked the law and if not, to disregard it and prevent its execution by the method of direct action."

"The observance of the law," he said, "is the greatest solvent of public ills." He deplored attempts to create class distinctions.

Great Crowd Attends.
The scene of the notification was Allen field, the recreation ground of Smith college, a natural amphitheater. A platform large enough to accommodate only the speakers and a few guests was erected at one end of the field and on the grassy slopes before it the great assemblage stood.

Gov. Coolidge heard from Gov.
Edwin P. Morrow, of Kentucky, the formal announcement of his nomination "by the spontaneous wish" of the party.

Gov. Coolidge declared the extravagant standards of government expenditure bred of recent years must be eliminated and a revision of taxation be accompanied by a reduction of private extravagance. He urged a different public attitude toward industry, a larger compensation of the interdependence of capital, management and labor, and better facilities for

HOME, NATURE, MANKIND AND COUNTRY IN SONG FESTIVAL HERE

Five Episodes in University Pageant Aug 2 to Indicate Love Leading to Knowledge and Light

BY ADRIAN SCOLTEN.

Plans for the Song and Light festival, which will form the final and climatic episode in the novel pageant to be given in Madison, Monday, Aug. 2, have been completed by Prof. Dykema's class in community music.

The Song and Light Festival will consist of five parts, dealing with the home, with nature, with mankind, with country, and with the Creator. The endeavor will be to indicate beauty which leads to love, and love which leads to knowledge, or light. The program planned is as follows:

Episode I. The Home: In the midst of total darkness there sounds the tender lullaby of the mother, as,
by the side of her child, she sings the Welsh lullaby, "All Through the Night." This is followed by the beginning of the light with tender blue, as the adults' chorus sing
"Sweet and Low," and are answered by the children's "Baby's Boat and the Silver Moon." Here a single light, representing the star or moon, will appear high overhead. Adults, children, and audience are then enveloped in light of a warmer tone as the entire assemblage unites in "Love's Old Sweet Song."

Episode II. Nature: The Bar-carolle, "Silent Now the Drowsy Bird" will be sung by the great chorus.
The lighting will give the impression that the song is being sung in the late twilight with the falling shadows. This is followed by "Santa Lucia," with a deeper blue light.

Episode III. Mankind and Community: "The Sun Worshippers" suggests the early morning, with the Indians saluting the dawn. Here will be a tableau with Indians in the attitude of adoration toward the rising sun.

Episode IV. Country: A strong white light will reveal the flag waving in the breeze while "America, the Beautiful," is sung in a warm golden glow.

Episode V. Man's Relation to His Creator: In the final episode of this program in which light is named to song, will be portrayed. It will be done by singing "The Lost Chord" with dim and uncertain light; then the "Pilgrim's Chorus," with the lighting greatly strengthening.

"Send Out Thy Light" is the beginning of the final climax, which is reached in "The Heavens Resound," when the full, bright light of every kind are all thrown upon the participants. Then the entire hall, including audience, comes into the strongest possible light, and "Nearer, My God, to Thee," is sung by everyone in the building.

BREAK $100,000 PAYROLL GANG

Police Capture Bandits After Revolver
Battle

(By the Associated Press)
CHICAGO — Capture of two bandits, who, with three others, held up three express messengers yesterday getting away with $12,000 after a revolver battle, led the police to believe today that they had broken up the payroll gang, which in the last few weeks, had stolen more than $100,000.

Although the $12,000 remains missing the police today renewed search for the three other members of the gang. The bullet riddled motor car which the bandits used in their daring hold-up was found this morning. There was an empty pistol in the car.

The police believe the bandit car was stolen in Milwaukee. Efforts were made through the Milwaukee police department to establish the identity of the owner.

PONTIUS PILATE'S JOB NOW TAKEN BY ENGLISHMAN

Colonel Storrs, Governor of Jerusalem, Faces Big Problem

JERUSALEM—The office of governor of Jerusalem, once occupied by Pontius Pilate, is now held by Col. Ronald Storrs, a graduate of Cambridge university, and son of the Dean of Rochester, college, England. His task is one to test the administrative ability of any man.
Jerusalem is a city of disunions where, whatever may come of the future, for the moment Zionists and Arabs are passionately divided and to steer a just path between them and induce them to join him on that path is thankless work.

It is to that task that he chiefly devotes himself. Twice a week he has meetings of his favorite pro-Jerusalem society, where French, Italians, British, Americans, rabbis, Zionists, leaders, commercial men of standing and others who are in any way prominent in the life of the city, are brought together and in the course of debate, led to see that they have in common a single citizenship.

Col. Storrs was one of the prime movers in the establishment of an independent Arab kingdom. He is 38 years old.

MY KINGDOM FOR A COTTAGE IS TOURIST'S CRY

Miss Smith of A. of C. in Despair Over Hunt for Cottages

"Cottages, cottages, and yet more cottages!" is the cry of Miss Margaret Smith of the Association of Commerce, one of whose many jobs is to find cottages for families who wish to spend the summer on the lakes here.

This morning she was nearly in despair, as she viewed the cottage hunters, camping on the edge of her desk, their eyes glued upon her as their last hope.

"Please say something that will make Madison people who are not using their cottages, offer them for rent," Miss Smith begged. "Last night a whole family from Missouri had to camp in Menona park without even so much as a tent to cover them. They couldn't get a cottage, nor could they get accommodations in any hotel or rooming place. Another family also had to camp out, but they at least had a tent."

Persons having cottages out of use are urged to notify the Association of Commerce (Badger 7395), who will quickly find tenants. This morning 10 families wanted cottages.

Appoints Appraisers—Judge Stevens of the circuit court has appointed Frank Bell, M. H. Atwood and Henry Hook as appraisers in determining the amount of damage to lands abutting on the Yahara near Stouten, caused by the back water from the Stebbinsville dam. Five petitioners claimed damages yesterday.

Juries in Session—The grand and petit juries went into session at Superior this morning, the supervising judge being Judge Louis Fitzhenry of the southwestern district of Illinois.

To Conduct Hearings—The conservation commission will practically complete the long series of hearings on deer hunting and the trapping of muskrat and mink in Wisconsin this week. Commissioner Barber has held most of the hearings and will preside tomorrow night at Fond du Lac and Thursday at Elkhorn.

He also approved articles of incorporation of the Hartland Building & Loan association, Hartland, Wis., capital $5,000,000, and of the Grand Rapids Building & Loan association of Grand Rapids, capital $5,000,000.

CHARGED WITH BEATING BOY

Man Faces Trial for Cruelty; Nine in Court Today

The superior court room fairly hummed with business this morning in sharp contrast with its condition during the past few weeks.

Alfred Smithback was charged with cruel treatment of Arthur Juve, a young boy, whom he is alleged to have brutally choked, beaten and knocked about, leaving him lying three hours unconscious in the field where they had been working on the farm of the boy's uncle, Andrew Juve, near Parker. The uncle was away from home when the assault is said to have taken place. Smithback pleaded not guilty and the case was continued to July 30. Judge Casson asked $200 bail.

Ed Joachim pleaded guilty to unnecessarily obstructing the traffic with a team he was driving and was fined $5 and costs.

R. O. Arneson was charged with speeding, but pleaded not guilty. The case was continued to Wednesday.

H. J. Kleinfelter, who was also charged with speeding, pleaded guilty and paid a fine of $10 and costs.

A charge of reckless driving was brought against Harold Warner and N. F. Duerst, both of them pleading not guilty. Their case was taken up again this afternoon.

Allen Young, who was but recently brought to court on a charge of driving an auto while intoxicated, was brought in again today, this time for grand larceny. He is charged with stealing two bicycles, one of them belonging to J. E. Schwada. He pleaded not guilty, but was unable to furnish $1,000 bail bond or $500 cash for bail, and is now in the custody of the sheriff.

Carl Hausmann was fined $5 and costs this morning for running a car with the muffler open.

The case of Leo McCann, who was charged with neglect to provide for his minor child, was settled this morning when McCann paid up. The McCanns were divorced this spring, the mother, Margaret McCann, having custody of the child. Joseph Marcus was arraigned in court this morning, charged with forgery. He entered no plea, but full restitution was made and the case dismissed. This is the second time Marcus has been up in court here this year for the same offense. The last time the case was settled in much the same way, after Marcus had been in the county jail, awaiting trial, for some days.

SLAUGHTER SALE OF RESIDENCE LOTS!

Located on Marquette and Union Sts., at Corner of Oak and Milwaukee Sts., City of Madison

50 Building Lots Will be Auctioned off to the Highest Bidder - $25 in $5 Gold Pieces will be given away FREE!! - Next Saturday, July 31 - Sale Starts at 2:30 p.m.

A lot in this subdivision is an investment; a home district of the East Side. The best real estate for home purposes is that which combines beauty and value. This subdivision is in a beautiful home district, at the same time it is a property possessing a value which is the direct result of the growth of population, and a healthy demand for this kind of property in this very district.

The rise of values on the East Side of Madison has been a constant one, like the progress of Madison itself. The demand of the people for homes, the necessity of Madison's thousands of population, has forced the development of every section on the East Side. This same demand, this same necessity, forced the former owners of this beautiful home subdivision to dispose of this property to those who would put it in condition for settlement and building purposes.

Home subdivision will be developed, improved and beautified in keeping with the East Side residential property standards. Its value will increase in the same proportion and to the same extent as the values have increased in such districts as Hudson Park and Elmside Park. Its future is just as certain and fixed as was the future of Fair Oaks and Elmside. There are fortunes here for wise investors, and there is a substantial, safe and profitable investment here for every lot owner.

This subdivision will be developed rapidly because demand and necessity will force such development. Those who buy before demand and necessity force the prices upward will make money—the first money—out of this subdivision.

This subdivision should make bigger money for its owners than any other Madison subdivision on the market.

This is the fifth great low priced sale that I have held in this district.

The other sales resulted in the sale of over 100 choice lots adjoining this subdivision. I now offer to the public the same kind of very high grade residence property which was bought at pre-war prices. NEVER SAW ITS EQUAL DECLARES CONTRACTOR

Victim of Rheumatism and Indigestion for Four Years Frank Kernan Finally Regains Robust Health—Gives Tanlac Highest Praise.

"Tanalac has not only gotten rid of the indigestion and rheumatism from which I had suffered terribly for four years, but has made me feel like a young man again," recently declared Frank Kernan, a prominent St. Paul builder and contractor, living at 332 Shilburn Ave. "I guess I must have suffered about as much as anybody ever did on account of indigestion and rheumatism. After every meal I had such pain in the pit of my stomach that it fairly doubled me up. I would bloat up with gas until I could hardly breathe, and I had pains in my shoulders, arms and legs nearly all the time and in damp weather my joints became so stiff that I could not bend them without suffering agony. I had no appetite and became so run-down that I thought I should have to give up altogether. "I saw so many statements in the papers from people who had been benefited by Tanlac that I decided to give it a trial, and I want to say right here that I have never known any medicine to give such remarkable results in so short a time. The first few doses gave me an appetite and I soon found that I could eat anything I wanted without being troubled with the least sign of indigestion. Now after taking twelve bottles in all I haven't an ache or a pain of any kind and all trace of the rheumatism has disappeared. I can honestly say that I never felt better in my life than I do today and after Tanlac did so much for me I do not hesitate to recommend it to others."

Tanalac is sold in Madison by the Luckey Pharmacies, and in Mazomanie by Geo. A. Shields, in Mt. Horeb by C. C. Robertson, in Cambridge by Ole Bilstad, and by the leading druggists in every town—Adv.

Don't Treat Kidneys Rough, Warns Dr. Carey, Specialist

Constant Flushing May Injure the Delicate Organism and Seldom Removes the Poisonous Deposits.

Now that Dr. Carey, kidney and bladder specialist, has retired from active practice, he generously warns people that even the smallest symptoms of kidney trouble should have serious attention.

Backache, for instance, puffiness under or specks floating before the eyes, heavy feet and dry skin, are also danger signals.

"Thousands die yearly because they neglect their kidneys," says Dr. Carey, "and I feel upon retiring that I should tell all who even suspect kidney or bladder trouble about my prescription, Marshroot, which, during my active practice, has cured thousands of all kinds of kidney ailments."

This prescription has been given to pharmacists generally throughout America and is dispensed by them under the name Dr. Carey's Marshroot, a name that every sufferer from kidney trouble should remember. Palace Drug Store can supply you.—Adv.

VACATIONING WITH FILM STARS

Irene Rich.

A swim and a romp on the beach with her two lovely cottes is the daily routine of Irene Rich, the pretty actress who has recently joined the Goldwyn forces. Miss Rich is another of the motion picture actresses who stays right near the Pacific ocean when she gets a vacation. She is an expert swimmer and would never consider a vacation which was not spent mostly in the water. "I always go where it's wet for my vacations," she facetiously remarked.

HEART AND HOME PROBLEMS

By MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Please don't tear this up before you read it. Somehow I want you to know of my good luck. In six days I will find myself on the way out west if everyone keeps healthy this time. It seems my cousin Ben, the one that died, had a budgie and he hadn't any home, so since he came back he has made his home with them. I guess they adopted him. Anyway I'm still expecting some spins.

My father says I've earned a vacation. But I rather think my vacationing around with a fellow he does not like has most to do with it. It's all in knowing how to manage dad.

Two solid months with my own mother's brother, a doctor at that. Gee! And a stop at Yellowstone. Do wish me a pleasant trip, won't you? I certainly wish you the happiest summer you've ever had and I won't annoy you with postals from the west either, I vow I won't. But I suppose you won't believe that. You don't believe me any more, do you? I am sorrier than anything about that, but I don't know what I can do. I want you to know I am a changed young man, even dad has to admit it, and I'm not writing again to start another correspondence. I'm going to expect an answer, but that's not saying I'll get one, I know. I have been in bad with anyone, and you—well, I know what you think of me. Maybe you don't think about me at all. Hang my conceit.

It's late for an answer, but that kid sister of mine—though she was to blame for dad finding out my plans to leave last winter—has promised to watch for it and send it to me. I'd sure be pleased for I might still believe you are friendly. I'll not write again if you answer. Well, I won't if you don't either. I'll keep my word.

With best wishes from a "good rideance," no doubt.

My column is not a matrimonial agency and therefore it is impossible for me to help you to find the widower your heart desires. I would advise you to take a position as housekeeper in the home of some widower.

AS A WOMAN THINKS

WANTED: HONEST MEN.

By Edith E. Moriarty.

A startling bit of news was printed in a Cleveland paper recently. It told of a bag of U. S. mail which had been sold to a ragman and of 800 other letters which were found in the home of a letter carrier. While such an offense is the exception, it is important enough to deserve attention. There is no absolute and sure method of preventing the recurrence of such an act, but there are two measures which might help along that line.

In the first place salaries of letter carriers might be made adequate and sufficient for decent and proper maintenance of a family. If this were the case, more honest men or at least men of a better type would be attracted to the profession. Under prevailing conditions no man who had dreams and visions of rearing his family in comfort and educating his children beyond the public school would think of entering the postal employ with factories and other labor-paying such satisfying sums.

Secondly, if the civil service commission for postal employees were resumed there would be less chance of getting unprincipled men. In many cities the great dearth of help due to low salaries has forced the post office departments to omit civil service examinations. Thus the fifties and other rather undesirable men can get work for a few days or nights with the post office and then leave for new fields. Such men can scarcely have the same conscientious feeling about their trust that men who had to study and work to pass an examination might have.

These two things may not effect a sure cure for all post office ills, but there is no doubt but that they would cure a great many of them. Surely a man who was mentally all right and earning a fair salary would not sell mail to a ragman or board it in his attic.

Well, Bob, your letter was a pleasant surprise. The last time you wrote you were sharp and unkind because I had doubted your identity. I could not be blamed for it because a life like yours is too romantic to be convincing. Please let's drop that subject. I like to hear from you even if I do not have space in the column to print your letters.

Your trip west will be most enjoyable without a doubt. I don't see why I can't have a post card telling me of your safe arrival and the kind of time you are having. I should like to hear.

Thank you for your best wishes regarding my summer.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: For some time I have known that a certain young man wished to meet me. He is very good looking and attractive and admired by everyone who knows him. Several of my friends have said that he wanted to meet me, but I have never done anything to help him.

One of my girl friends is going to have a week-end party at her grandmother's farm. She has in-

BILLY WHISKERS

By FRANCES TREGO MONTGOMERY

Just as the footsteps died away from the cave where Billy and his mother had hidden there was a slow rustling of the leaves in the hollow. Something was coming toward them!

Nearer and nearer to where Billy and his mother lay hidden came the noise, and soon they saw a dim, dark-gray shape among the underbrush turn straight up toward them. It was a large wild boar, one of the fiercest animals that rove the forests of Europe. It had a great, shaggy head and cruel-looking curved tusks nearly a foot long. The two goats were in one of his hiding places, and they knew that he would not stop to say "Beg your pardon" when he came up; whatever he had to say would be said with those sharp tusks. The space was too narrow for them to run out past him. Billy's mother was scared, but not Billy.

"The only thing for us to do is to fight," said he, and jumping to his feet, he stood at the mouth of the little cave and gave a loud "Baah!" which was to warn the boar that it had better go about its business.

The boar stopped and looked up at Billy with little wicked eyes, then he gave a loud snort, and lowering his head, started to run straight up the hill toward them. Billy waited until the boar was close upon him, then he gave a sudden jump and landed square upon the fierce animal's back. The beast squealed and whirled around to rip Billy with his tusks, but before he could do so Billy himself had whirled and had hooked the big animal in the side. There was another squeal and Billy jumped out of the way. The animal turned and dashed after him, but in turning his side for an instant toward the mouth of the cave. It was just that instant for which Billy's mother was watching, and with all her might she jumped, butting him in the side with such force that he went rolling over and over, squealing and grunting, into the hollow. Billy was for jumping down after him, but his mother knew better than that. She knew that it would be only an accident if they could whip this wicked animal, as the boar was so much the stronger, and that it was better to run than fight.

"Come quickly!" she cried, springing up the hill. Billy stood for a moment, hardly knowing whether to follow her or not, but just then the boar scrambled to his feet and started after them, snorting and with fire-red eyes.

"Billy! Billy!" screamed his mother. "Do as I tell you!"

Even then Billy, who never had known what it was to be afraid, wanted to stay and fight it out, but the sight of his mother scampering up the hill decided him. He was more afraid that he might lose her than he was that he could not whip the boar, so he took after her. The boar was also a good runner, but he was not nearly so nimble as the goats, and they soon outdistanced him, gaining the road, where they ran on as fast as they could go.

TESTED RECIPES.

Cooking a Fat Chicken and Making Gravy.—Use a yearling hen, or it can be two or three years old (they are reasonable now). Purchase one that is fat; they are always tender if cooked long enough, usually three or four hours. Cut up and cook in plenty of water, salt, let cool, then skim off the greater part of fat.

Drain chicken, roll in flour, place frying pan on stove, in it put three tablespoons chicken fat, saving butter. When hot put chicken in to fry. Fry slowly, when nicely browned remove. Pour in the liquor that chicken was cooked in, boil and thicken. Break your baking powder biscuits open (do not cut them), your your rich brown gravy over them and serve.

Put a pinch of baking soda in chicken gravy first, before removing from the stove; this distributes the fat. In all fat meat gravy use a pinch of soda and you will be pleased with the result, as it distributes the grease that usually floats on top.

Red or Black Raspberry Whip (can use either berries)—Whites of two eggs, two heaping cups berries, two cups powdered sugar.

Beat the whites of eggs until frothy. Sift in the sugar gradually, crush berries, beat into the sugar and egg. (Use yolks next day for custard.) Serve with cake.

Chicken Fat Cake.—One cup of sugar, three tablespoons chicken fat (no salt), one egg; beat and add one and one-half cups milk, flavor vanilla or orange. Sift one and one-half cups flour; bake in a loaf.

This is a fine cake and the use of the chicken fat is a saving. (Use chicken fat in cookies instead of butter or lard.)

Cabbage Salad.—Two tablespoons shredded cabbage, mix light brown sugar, weak vinegar and salt and pepper together, pour over cabbage. This is quickly made and is a nice salad.

HOT WEATHER DESSERTS.
Peach Frappe.—Pack a can of sliced peaches in mixture of salt and ice for two hours, open can, turn into dish and serve in frappe glasses with garnish of marshmallow whip, covered with finely chopped nuts and sprinkling of sweet chocolate (grated).

Pineapple Surprise.—Pack can of crushed pineapple in mixture of salt and ice for two hours. Serve in frappe glasses and garnish with whipped cream; sprinkle with coconut and pieces of orange rolled in powdered sugar.

To Poach Apples—Place one cup of white corn syrup, one cup sugar, one-half teaspoon extract cinnamon and one-half teaspoon extract nutmeg in a deep sauce pan that has a close-fitting lid. Now add six or eight apples and heat slowly to boiling point; let simmer very slowly, turning the apples frequently until clear and tender; boil the syrup after removing apples to reduce.

Big Pickerel Caught Off Sigma Chi Pier

The Mendota fishing season is in its prime. Some in the process of fishing get a fish or so, and some don't. But the latter was not the case this morning when a four foot pickerel weighing 18½ pounds was pulled out of the briny deep in front of the Sigma Chi pier. A local rod man did the trick and landed the fish, that creature having three hooks in his mouth. It was rumored during the day that before the unlucky beast goes into fish chowder he will be rented for the purpose of having his picture taken with supposed landers at two bits per.

MT. HOREB IS 6 TO 1 WINNER AT SUN PRAIRIE

Cambridge Rallies in Ninth to Defeat Waterloo, 4 to 3; Hanson Swats Homer

Mt. Horeb maintained its lead in the Tri-County league race by defeating Sun Prairie, 6 to 1, at Sun Prairie Sunday. The largest crowd of the season turned out to witness the game. Bowman's wildness and two Sun Prairie errors gave Mt. Horeb a lead of three runs in the fourth inning.

Christianson, Mt. Horeb hurler, pitched great ball. He fanned nine men and gave but one walk. He allowed but three safe blows and was never in danger. Bowman was wild and lacked control. He was relieved by Spahn in the seventh round. Fast fielding featured the game. The Sun Prairie infield pulled off three double plays. A catch by Carroll, Sun Prairie second baseman, and a one-handed stop by Edwards, Mt. Horeb third sacker, featured. The score:

WILLS KAYOS FRED FULTON

Negro Heavyweight Knocks Out Fulton in Third Round at Newark; Britton Wins

NEWARK, N. J.—Harry Wills, negro heavyweight, knocked out Fred Fulton in the third round of a scheduled twelve round fight here Monday night.

Jack Britton, welterweight champion of the world, defeated Marcel Thomas, French welterweight, in a scheduled ten round bout. The referee stopped the fight in the tenth round after the Frenchman had been knocked down four times.

Moran Wins
Frank Moran, Pittsburgh heavyweight, was given a newspaper decision over Wild Burt Kenny of New York. Both fighters did a lot of stalling and the crowd repeatedly yelled for action.

Eddie Fitzsimmons, New York lightweight, outpointed Johnny Dundee in a ten round bout. Fitzsimmons had the better of five rounds, Dundee of three, and two were even.

The knockout blow, a right uppercut, came after two minutes and thirty-five seconds of fighting in the third round. Wills took the aggressive in the first round sending rights and lefts to Fulton's head and body. Wills then hooked a left to the head and followed with a right to Fulton's stomach. Fulton, still on the defensive, blocked a couple of rushes and then swung a right right to Wills' head just before the bell in the first round. It was Wills' round.

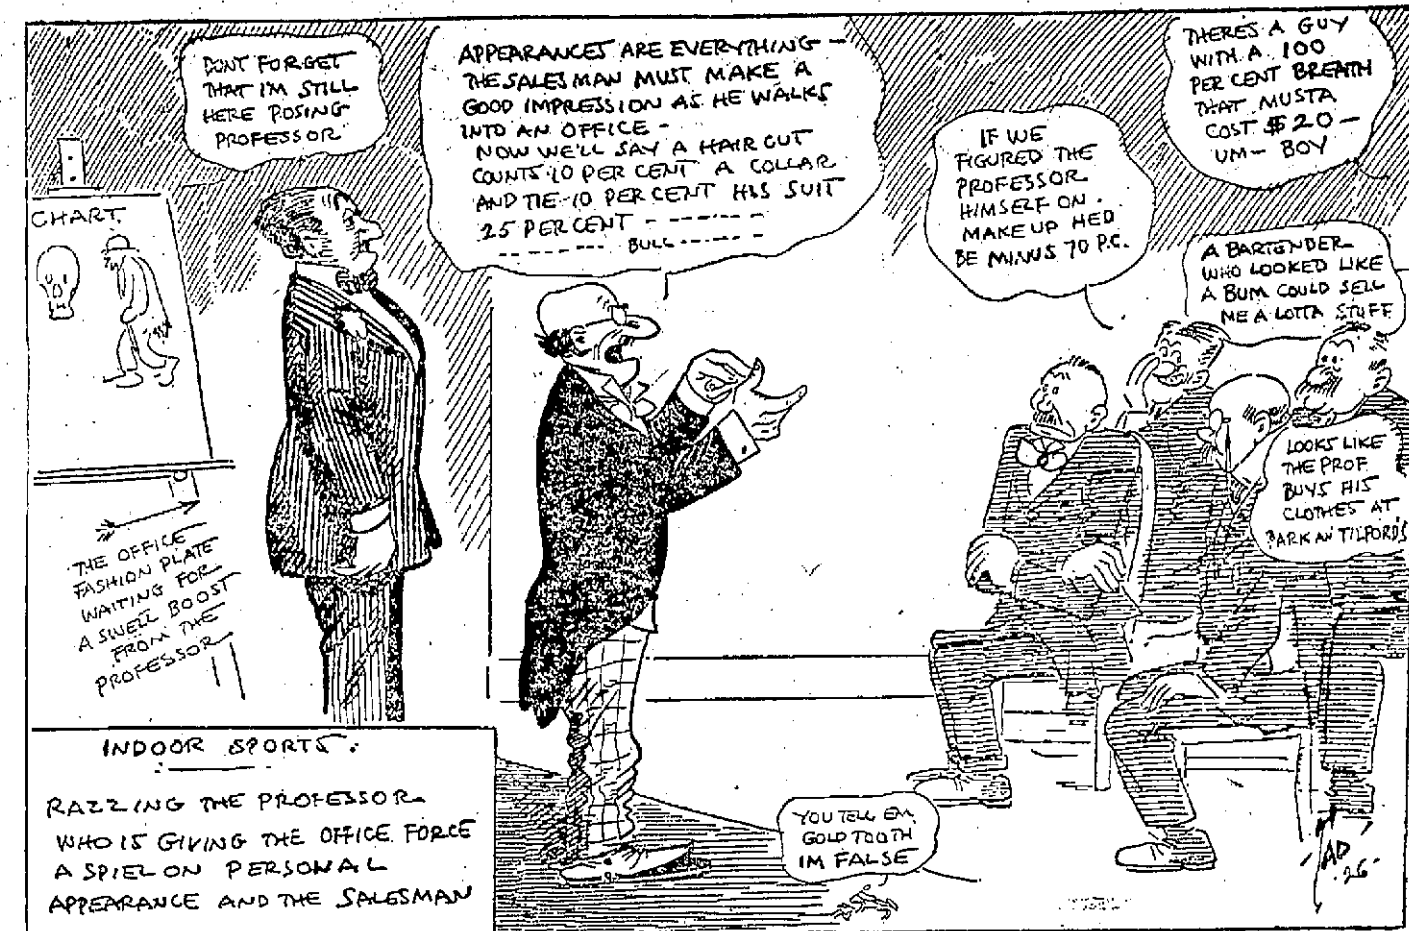

Fulton's Round
In the second round Wills landed a hard right to the head and Fulton countered with a straight left to the face and a right to the body. Fulton found he was able to reach his opponent and sent his left again to the face. He then hooked lefts and rights to the negro's body after Wills had missed a right swing for the jaw. It was Fulton's round. Wills rushed his opponent at the beginning of the third round and landed rights to the jaw, following with rights and lefts to the head and body. They came to a half clinch and Wills shot a short right uppercut under the chin. When they broke away Wills landed a hard right jolt over the heart and then followed with a right swinging uppercut to the jaw, knocking Fulton on his back in the center of the ring, where he was counted out. He had to be helped to his corner. Wills weighed 204 pounds and Fulton 210.

YACHTS RACE FINAL TODAY

Resolute Ahead When Wind Died Yesterday; Sail Over Windward and Leeward Course Again Today

SANDY HOOK, N. J.—The 25-mile Sandy Hook gale that drove defender Resolute and its British challenger, Shamrock IV, back to shelter last Saturday, went into retirement on Monday, taking all the little Sandy Hook seaports with it and the fight and decisive race for the America's cup was called off after the contenders had wallowed along for a half hour in a virtually breezeless sea.

The third attempt to settle 1920's yachting supremacy will be made on Tuesday, wind and weather permitting. The course will be the same as announced for Monday—15 miles to windward and 15 miles to leeward.

Although their favorite failed to win on Monday, Resolute's supporters took comfort in the fact that it was leading the challenger by about two miles when the match was called off. Measured in actual progress toward the far away stake in the prevailing wind, this meant about an hour's sailing for the defender had consumed a trifle more than four and a half hours in covering nine miles of the course.

Both yachts, however, had covered considerably more actual distance than nine miles, for immediately after the start, Capt. Charles Francis Adams, II, of the Resolute and Capt. William P. Burton of Shamrock IV got into a judding match that took them far off the course and well in toward the Jersey shore.

When they finally came about after an hour and 20 minutes of sailing that had carried them only a short distance nearer the mark than they were at the start, Resolute had picked up the 36 second lead Shamrock IV took at the start and soon passed the green challenger.

But the breath of wind that had given the committee sufficient hope to start the race had died out by this time and the sloops flitted until the match was declared off. Monday's was the second meet of the series to be called off because neither boat was able to finish within the allotted six hours. The other "no race" start was on July 17, and ended with Resolute five miles ahead of the challenger.

NIELS TRIMS PORTER IN NET SEMI-FINALS

BOSTON — In the semi-finals of the Longwood cricket lawn tennis tournament for the Longwood bowl on Monday, N. W. Niels defeated W. E. Porter, Jr. in straight sets, 6-1, 6-0, 6-0. Niels will meet L. REDS TRIM INDIANS IN EXHIBITION TILT

CLEVELAND, O. — Cincinnati defeated Cleveland in an exhibition game here on Monday, 4 to 3. Cleveland tried out two recruit pitchers, Ellison and Clarke, the latter allowing but one hit in four innings. Score by innings:

Cleveland Americans—

Dick Kerr Subdues Tigers; Dodgers Win From Pirates; Jones Gives Yanks 3 Hits

Only Three Games in Major Leagues; Ruth Passed Four Times by Boston Hurler

THE TIGERS threw a scare into the Chicago White Sox yesterday when they attacked Dick Kerr in the seventh inning and tied the score four all, but Gleason's crew was undaunted and scored two runs in the ninth for a 6 to 4 victory. Kerr allowed eight hits and was pitching good ball. He has won every game in which he has appeared during the present road trip. The White Sox made thirteen hits in all off Daus and Ayers, including a triple by Joe Jackson with Leibold and Eddie Collins on base.

The Robins at last managed to trim the Pirates yesterday. They didn't deserve to win, for Carlson pitched better ball than either Pictor or Smith, but Haeffner's wild throw with the bases full gave the Robins three runs. The final score was 6 to 4.

The mighty Yankees were humbled by the Boston Red Sox yesterday when a victory would have meant fight place. The score was 9 to 0. Jones held the slugging New York crew to three scattered hits, but issued seven bases on balls. Four of these went to Babe Ruth, whom Jones passed consistently. Collins was taken out of the box after the Red Sox had score three runs in the third inning.

There were only three games in the major leagues yesterday. The National league will open today with a full schedule, but the American league has but one contest scheduled. The western clubs in the National league are touring the east while the eastern clubs of the American league will play in the west.

SINGLE G BEATEN IN GRAND CIRCUIT

COLUMBUS, O.—The opening card of the Columbus midsummer grand circuit race meeting saw Single G, the veteran pacer, take his first defeat of the year in the race for all, when after stepping in 2:01 the first heat he went into the rack while Sanardo went on and won in slower time. Single G's mile was the fastest heat paced anywhere this year. In the auction pools he sold for $100 to $80 for the field.

The 2:07 trot furnished a duel between Dr. Nick and Peter L, the latter winning. Dr. Nick trotted the first heat in 2:04 1/2. Peter L, was the original favorite. The stake event of the card was the 2:05 pace, the Elks' Home, purse $3,000. It proved a stirring contest, Royal Earl winning the first heat but being forced to bow to the rushes of Hal Mahone in the last two heats. It was the latter pacer's first win of the season.

The first division of the 2:14 pace was a split heat affair, Lillian S. winning in the fourth and deciding heat.

ENGLISH PUG HERE RODE IN STEERAGE

NEW YORK, July 26.—Declaring that it almost took an order from the King of England to get first cabin passage to America, Bobbie Williams, English prize fighter, arrived here in steerage on the Aquitania today. He told inspectors at Ellis Island that every-class passage from England had been sold for months ahead. He said he had an engagement to fight in Milwaukee, so came steerage. He left today for the West.

NEW RULES ARE SUGGESTED TO HALT PASSING

Intentional Pass in Baseball Can Be Eliminated Says Jack Doyle in Interview

By JACK KEENE

The subject of the international pass in baseball still occupies the attention of Jack Doyle, Broadway's most popular billiard academy proprietor, reports a New York scribe. Jack has amplified his suggestion for changes in the playing code, which, if adopted, will legislate the objectionable strategy out of baseball. Under the plan suggested by Doyle, the pass, instead of being a relief to a batter, pitcher would be a hazard. The writer met Doyle last night, and baseball, Babe Ruth and the intentional pass became the topic of conversation.

"If the rules committee is really serious in its desire to rid baseball of this objectionable intentional pass it might consider a couple of suggestions," declared Doyle. "There are no teeth in the rule as it is framed and as it operates under the cognizance of the umpires. Now here is one way to make the intentional pass a hazard instead of a relief to the pitchers. We'll suppose that a runner is on third base and Ruth comes up. A run is needed to tie the score. Now the pitcher just shoots them wide and the catcher steps wide to make his catch.

Ruth, who wants to hit the ball, is chained to the batter's box by the rules. He can't step out. He is called upon by the fans, who are paying the salaries of the pitchers, to hit it. One after one the wide balls sail up and Ruth is forced to walk. Now suppose this were to happen: If the pitcher didn't want to pitch to him, fearing a home run, give Babe a chance to decline his base on balls. Then make the pitcher put the following deliveries over the plate, with the umpires calling only legitimate strikes."

"But suppose a bullheaded pitcher wasted an hour, what then?" I asked him.

"I was coming to that," replied Doyle. "If the pitcher declines to put the next four balls over and delivers four balls before the batter is legally retired on called or missed strikes, or in the usual way, let the man on third score and the batter take the runner's place on the base vacated. In this way the runner will be in and the pitcher will still be in the hole.

"This does not apply alone to Ruth. George Sisler, Joe Jackson and all other sluggers are walked in the pinches, and it is not fair to the fans who pay the freight. Throughout the league, now that the batsmen are playing on even terms with the pitchers, the fans are cheated out of their greatest pleasure when some slugger of repute is passed by some weak-kneed pitcher."

U. S. OLYMPIC TEAM IS OFF FOR ANTWERP

NEW YORK—The United States Olympic team, consisting of 230 crack American athletes, sailed late on Monday on the steamship Princess Matoika for Antwerp.

The American teams which include track and field stars, swimmers, wrestlers, boxers, fencers and bicyclists, from almost every state, and Hawaii, before its departure was given a farewell reception at the Manhattan opera house. Telegrams of encouragement and wishes of success from the governors of 11 states were read. Later the athletes marched to the Hudson river piers, where they crossed to Hoboken and boarded the steamship.

Gustavus T. Kirby, chairman of the American Olympic committee, who will leave later for Antwerp, presided at the reception. He expressed the hopes of the committee for the success of the contestants at the Olympic, and told the athletes that the action of the government in providing a transport for the trip "evidenced the new appreciation" of the country in the value of sport in rebuilding the nation.

The fund to meet the expenses of the American team is short about $25,000, he said, but it is expected to raise $10,000 of this in New York and $15,000 in Philadelphia.

VARDON SINKS LONG PUT TO WIN MATCH

NEW LONDON — Harry Vardon and Edward Ray, British golf stars, defeated Walter Hagen, open champion, and James Barnes, American professional champion, one up, in a thirty-six hole match on the Shencroer Country Club links here on Monday. A putt of more than thirty feet by Vardon on the last green won the match.

KEEP DOLLAR OUT OF AMERICANISM

"WE DEMAND that the dollar sign be kept off all programs of Americanization."

These are words taken from the National Catholic War Council Bulletin in an article written by the Rev. John A. Lapp, L. L. D., director of the Social Action bureau of the war council. A review of the article follows:

"During the war," he says, "many such bogus efforts were carried on, with some success, and the belief in the power of propaganda seemed to be fixed in the minds of selfish interests."

"With clever publicity material and agencies, the people were fooled into supporting certain causes or in opposing others by the glamour of patriotism. Reactionary groups which had never done anything to indicate interest in the promotion of good citizenship suddenly arrayed themselves in the livery of Americanism and went forth to interpret American ideals to immigrant peoples."

Whether this reference is meant to apply especially to the steel barons in Pennsylvania or to the steel and banking and milling interests in Minnesota and the northwest, only the reader can judge.

"The program of reaction," Dr. Lapp resumes, "garbed in livery of patriotism, seemed to be directed toward the discrediting of progressive measures for social justice, and particularly the destruction of organized labor. The program served as an accelerator of reaction; it focused in legislatures, where, instead of progressive reconstruction measures to meet the need of the times, was found the most abject surrender to reactionary sentiments and forces. It appears almost incredible that anyone could expect that the American people could be fooled so long and continuously as the work of some of these agencies would seem to indicate."

He recalls the use of the same "patriotic" pretense in past attempts to destroy freedom of religious belief within the United States, and says that Catholics should be the last to be deceived by the present crop of bogus patriots.

"Deliberate efforts to promote popular hysteria and wild fears, with the object of promoting reaction," he suggests, "are matters of common observation. Paid advertisements for Americanization by commercial interests with very doubtful patriotic motives have been carried by papers throughout the country. The dollar sign is too plainly stamped on many of these schemes."

"Systems of espionage over employees have been built up, according to official testimony, on the basis of Americanization. This perversion of Americanization by special interests is having a most damaging effect upon the ideals of American citizenship."

"Recently it has been announced that commercial interests are to attempt to control all plans for Americanization and the promotion of citizenship, presumably including those promoted by public schools, church organizations and philanthropic bodies."

"We demand that the dollar sign be kept off all programs of Americanization. We hold that no plan short of complete social justice should be held as a goal in programs for good citizenship of Americanization."

"We hold that loyalty and devotion to American institutions can be promoted best by prevention of exploitation of the weak by the strong or crafty; by the promotion of justice in the distribution of the world's income; by the development of moral purpose; and by the moulding of our institutions to promote these ends."

"We believe that good citizenship or Americanization should be promoted among natives and immigrants alike for the purpose of fixing an ideal of social justice and civic responsibility toward which all may strive in practical fashion."

"We look upon the teaching of English as an instrument by which the ideals of American citizenship may be acquired, but we do not overlook the native tongue as a vehicle of expression of democracy and Americanism."

"We object to the idea that people can be forced into a mood of good citizenship."

WHAT ARE THEY GOING TO DO?

THE following letter has been received by The Capital Times:

To the Editor of The Capital Times:
Your correspondents from Bridgeport, Wis., and Cary Station, Ill., give a hint of the pent up feeling regarding the presidential nominations up to date that can have no effective expression unless there is another nomination by a new party.

The nomination of Mr. Bryan, though not entirely satisfactory, gave a possible alternative, he having been considered honest, sincere and uncompromising if not always wise, but he has put party above principle and now what can we do? Let us stand and be counted for La Follette; if we lose, we shall have done our best; if we win there will be such an administration as the country has not seen since the days of Lincoln.

ALICE WHITNEY BURTON.

This letter is only one of scores that are being received in Madison daily. What is to be done for the thousands of people over the country who refuse to support either Harding or Cox?

RAILROADING AND STOCK JOBBING

SAMUEL GOMPERS, president of the American Federation of Labor expresses the situation succinctly when he says of the railroad situation:

"With our railway executives the ideals of achievement have been buried under the aspiration for stock jobbing."

And the American people, thanks to the votes of men like Senator Lenroot, are now to be asked to pay 6 per cent on the water that has been injected into American railroad securities through years of shameless stock jobbing.

At the Grand—The newest of stars created by D. W. Griffith is Clarence Seymour, who appears in the title role of "The Idol Dancer" at the Grand. "The Idol Dancer" is a love story of the South Seas, produced by Mr. Griffith, with Miss Seymour, Richard Barthelmess, Creighton Hale and other players in the settings of the story's plot. Miss Seymour is "Little White Almond Blossom," a Samoan bird of paradise, in which veins flows the blood of vivacious France, incurable Java and languorous Samoa.

At the Fuller—Alice Joyce will be seen at the Fuller theatre today tomorrow and Thursday in another big special production, entitled "Dollars and the Woman." This is an adaptation from the widely read magazine story by Albert Payson Terhune.

"Dollars and the Woman" is a story of contrast. It is a tale of wealth and object poverty—dramatic, but not melodramatic, and above all, consistent and true to life. It contains many human interest touches such as only an artist can delineate.

QUESTIONS ARE ASKED

To the Editor of The Capital Times:
Winnebago County A. S. of E. would like to know:

"Whereas, a resolution was introduced in the senate by Senator Kenyon, and was adopted by the senate April 1, 1914, calling for information from the Secretary of Agriculture as to the relations of the general Education Board of the Rockefeller Foundation to the work of the Department of Agriculture; and,

"Whereas, same was referred to the Committee on Printing April 14, 1914, and printed as Senate Document No. 588; and,

"Whereas, said report by the Secretary of Agriculture D. F. Houston, shows that the General Education Board is a corporation created by a special act of Congress, and approved by President Roosevelt on Jan. 12, 1903, having as its object the promotion of education within the United States on a race, sex or creed; and,

"Whereas, on January 4, 1904, Congress appropriated $250,000.00 to meet the ravages of the cotton boll weevil through demonstration work by experts. This work meeting with success, the General Education Board expressed a desire to co-operate by placing additional funds at the disposal of the Department of Agriculture; and,

"Whereas, we believe that had the cotton growers received what they actually earned they might have been able to handle their own bugs; and,

"Whereas, on April 20, 1906, an agreement was entered into between the Department of Agriculture and the General Education Board of the Rockefeller Foundation, to extend the Farmers' co-operative demonstration work with certain distinctions as to financing; and,

Whereas, in March, 1913, Congress made an appropriation for the study of Marketing, and for the study of Credits in Europe, and to study the forms of co-operations in the United States, as well as the problems of Rural organizations and Farm Credits at home; and,

"Whereas, the extent and cost of this studying must have been underestimated, as it found the Department of Agriculture short of funds, but as good luck would have it, the General Education Board rallied to their support, and the Department of Agriculture agreed to have a director in charge of this work, so Dr. Thomas Nixon Carver of Harvard was selected, and it was further agreed to make Dr. Carver and four other men to be known as investigators, of collaborators, paying them a nominal salary of $1.00 per month, or per annum, so as to make it possible for them to use the franking privilege;

"Whereas, the department also selected twelve professors in Economics in Agricultural colleges and universities and made them collaborators, by paying them $1.00 per annum, so that they also may use the franking privilege, this latter selection includes Prof. C. B. Williams of the Iowa State college, and the report above referred to shows that Dr. Carver receives $625.00 per month from the Rockefeller Foundation and $1.00 per month from the government, and his other associates including the professors are paid in the same manner, and according to service; and

"Whereas, it would seem ridiculous to say the least, that Agriculture that actually feeds and clothes the world, should be allowed to become an object of charity;

"Therefore, Be It Resolved, That we lay the following queries before the Secretary of Agriculture, and before our representatives in both houses of Congress:

"Was this demonstration work not extended by something like 11,000 men as we entered the war?

"Are they not engaged in carrying out the work as planned known as County Agents?

"Are they not organizing co-operative organizations to stimulate production, and improve our markets, under the name of 'Farm Bureaus'?

"Are these County Agents not working under instructions given by

stration work with certain distinctions as to financing; and,

A REFORMED REFORMER

I used to think that I was quite a pitiless reformer. In all the hot crusades on vice, No one, then I, was warmer.

I saw a one-piece bathing suit—A modern Venus in it. I quit reforming. I can't find A word to say again it.

Immigrant families from South America are bringing in great rolls of money, sometimes hundreds of thousands of dollars. One suspects that they intend to rent a flat.

HAUL BIG RAFT

ASHLAND—The tug Ashland will leave for Copper Harbor shortly after a portion of the big pulpwood raft believed to contain from 2,500 to 3,500 cords, which has been salvaged at Copper Harbor, Mich. Other portions have been rounded up and taken to Eagle Harbor. At the 1920 price of pulpwood the amount recovered will be large. This raft was lost last September when in tow of the Canadian tug Traveler.

Dr. Carver and his associates? Are Dr. Carver and his associates not depending on Rockefeller charity for their bread and butter?

"Are these charitable foundations charitable, or are they a monopoly in disguise?"

"What influence, if any, did the General Education Board have on price fixing during the war?"

"Did they have anything to do with suppressing Dr. Spillman's report on cost of producing farm products?"

"And Be It Further Resolved, That we give these Resolutions, also the answers 'when received, the widest possible publicity.'"

C. M. Anderson, Theodore Tollefson, J. E. Borlaug, Committee on Resolutions.

The above Resolution was adopted at the annual meeting of the Winnebago County Union A. S. of E., held at Decorah, Iowa, May 29, 1920, on which date it was also voted to give them publicity.

under a bushel all the time, but I despise a man who can't find the bushel when it is proper to do so the glim temporarily.

I go to the movies frequently in hot weather. Some of them offer a cool place to sit down and think about something else.

I am sorry Ambassador Davis wasn't mentioned more prominently at the San Francisco convention. I wanted to find out who he was.

I am prepared to face the worst and take the great risk which has been thrust upon us, of being obliged to have a change of administration.

I don't think the heart of the world has been broken or will be broken because, in my opinion, it is made of reinforced concrete which gets harder every year.

I never knew a poker player who wasn't broke about three times a week.

I think 80 per cent of the sex literature is polywopps and the other 20 per cent is whangoodle. I don't think a man should be forced to pay in succession, a family doctor, a nerve specialist, an X-ray expert, a scientific oculist and an optician every time he wants to have a pair of broken eyeglasses fixed.

I think the essential difference between the two great party platforms is the same difference that exists between eyeglasses and nose-glasses.

I don't think Carpenter has any more chance of whipping Dempsey than Alexander Berkman has of being elected president of the United States on a third ticket.

I dislike a man who owes me money; and keeps reminding me of the fact, without paying it. I would rather forget.

I wouldn't marry a woman with bobbed hair. No chance to drag 'em around and cave-man 'em.

Eighty million one-cent pieces are coined annually, and most of them are swallowed by babies.

We are not in favor of abolishing the one-piece bathing suit. It is better than nothing.

The party who invented war certainly didn't care for expenses.
